8 DECENT WORK AND ECONOMIC GROWTH

| UN Sustainable Development Goal #8

‘Decent Work and Economic Growth’

| Significance of decent work and economic growth

“sustained economic growth, full and productive employment, and decent work for all women and men.”

04. Goal of the international community for decent work and economic growth

| SDGs8. Targets

- 8.2 Achieve higher levels of economic productivity through diversification, technological upgrading and innovation, including through a focus on high-value added and labour-intensive sectors
- 8.3 Promote development-oriented policies that support productive activities, decent jobs creation, entrepreneurship, creativity and innovation, and encourage the formalization and growth of micro-, small- and medium-sized enterprises, including through access to financial services
- 8.5 By 2030, achieve full and productive employment and decent work for all women and men, including for young people and persons with disabilities, and equal pay for work of equal value
- 8.7 Take immediate and effective measures to eradicate forced labour, end modern slavery and human trafficking and secure the prohibition and elimination of the worst forms of child labour, including recruitment and use of child soldiers, and by 2025 end child labour in all its forms
- 8.8 Protect labour rights and promote safe and secure working environments for all workers, including migrant workers, in particular women migrants, and those in precarious employment

05. The most important tasks for decent work and economic growth

- ✓ Active response to the fast-changing labor market

- ✓ Providing legal protection

- ✓ Gender equality in the workplace

- ✓ Efforts to end child labor

- ✓ Active employment for the disabled
